HAKAN KOKARCALI

Senior colleague

Lead Game Developer & Development Manager (Technical Director) at United Tech

I had the pleasure of working closely with Zeynep, and she has been an excellent Product Manager and a highly reliable teammate. She did an outstanding job managing our Jira processes and support operations. Her task management, reporting, follow-ups, and coordination across the team were always well-organized and on time. She has a strong sense of ownership and makes sure things move forward without losing track of important details. Zeynep also uses AI tools very effectively in her daily work, especially for reporting, task organization, and improving workflows. She is responsible, proactive, innovative, and always looking for better ways to get things done. I was very happy to work with Zeynep and would highly recommend her to any team looking for a strong and forward-thinking Product Manager.

Senior colleague

Mobile Games | Publishing | Monetization | Live Operation | Product Management

I had the opportunity to work closely with Zeynep, and I'm genuinely glad I did. One of Zeynep's most remarkable qualities is how incredibly fast she learns. She approaches every new challenge with genuine openness to learning, and this adaptability has consistently set her apart. She takes feedback seriously and implements it quickly; she's always been open to suggestions about her own growth and development.

Zeynep is a true team player. She goes above and beyond to keep her team at ease while ensuring deliverables are completed on time, and she consistently identifies and implements solutions to prevent recurring issues from happening again. She is highly skilled in both planning and reporting, bringing a structured and organized approach to everything she manages. Her ability to express herself clearly within a group is outstanding, and she has substantial experience navigating cross-functional team operations with ease. Having had the chance to work one-on-one with her throughout our time together, I can say without hesitation that Zeynep is a valuable asset to any team she's part of.

ŠIME MATULIĆ

Senior colleague

CMO & CPO at aceIT

I worked with Zeynep as an external marketing consultant at United Tech, where she managed projects across the firm, including my department's work with the Love Eden team. Two things stood out. The first was clarity of communication. Despite carrying projects for the entire organization, Zeynep consistently made priorities explicit: what needed to happen, in what order, and why. I never had to chase her for direction or infer it from context. The second was consistency of delivery. Deadlines held, scope stayed realistic, and when timelines did change, she communicated it early rather than at the point of impact. As an outside advisor, that reliability meant recommendations moved into execution without friction. Zeynep would be an asset to any organization, and I would welcome the opportunity to work with her again.

SUFIA ISLAM

Senior colleague

Lead — Growth Marketing & Revenue

I have really enjoyed working with Zeynep. She took complete ownership of setting up and managing Jira and bringing structure to our workflows and processes across the organisation. She kept everything organised, stayed on top of updates and documentation and made sure teams were aligned and clear on what needed to be done. What I really appreciated was how proactive she was in building the process from the ground up and continuously finding ways to make things more organised and efficient. Her attention to detail, reliability and ability to keep multiple teams on track made her someone people could genuinely count on. She is definitely someone I would be happy to work with again and will be a great asset to any organisation.

ELYAR DAVARAN

Senior colleague

Director of Art & Creative Operations Lead | IGDA Mentor

I had the pleasure of working with Zeynep, and one of the things I appreciated most was the positive energy she consistently brought to the team. As a Product Manager, she is a strong communicator who works closely with different departments and team leads to keep everyone aligned and find the best way forward. She is good at balancing player needs, product goals, data, and production priorities, and turning discussions into clear, actionable next steps. Zeynep is fast, efficient, open to feedback, and always willing to take on new challenges and responsibilities. She brings a solution-oriented mindset to problems and genuinely tries to bring the best out of the people around her. I really enjoyed working with Zeynep and would gladly recommend her to any team looking for a Product Manager with strong communication, ownership, and a positive product mindset.

MILOŠ RUSIMOVIĆ

Senior colleague

Lead Narrative Designer | Game Writer

It was a pleasure working with Zeynep at United Tech for over a year! As the project owner, she was included in the daily work of all the teams, a job she performed with complete investment, professionalism, and grace. She is hard-working, organized, and willing to take on any challenges that were set before her. Managing the needs of many different teams, from developers to narrative designers and artists, takes a lot of skill and patience, both of which Zeynep has in abundance. I would recommend her to anyone who is looking for a person in need of organizational assistance and pipeline enhancement!

I had the pleasure of working with Zeynep, and she was genuinely one of those people who made working together both productive and enjoyable. Zeynep brought a great deal of energy, professionalism, and creativity to everything she did. She had a very strong ability to look at challenges from different perspectives, identify practical solutions, and offer constructive suggestions, especially when things became challenging or high-pressure. Her calm and solution-oriented approach often helped the team navigate difficult situations and move forward with confidence. What I particularly appreciated was that she didn't just focus on getting things done; she cared about how the team worked together. She was thoughtful in her communication, proactive in addressing issues, and always brought a positive and constructive attitude to the table. Zeynep is highly skilled, responsible, and genuinely enjoyable to work with. I highly recommend Zeynep to any team looking for someone who combines strong professional skills with a collaborative, creative, and solution-oriented approach.
